

Where Do Our Graduates Go?

Our graduates enter high school with a strong sense of self, a foundation that allows them to flourish in a variety of settings. They are confident, creative thinkers who possess a desire to learn and are very well-prepared academically. Friends School of Portland's first eighth grade class graduated in June 2009. We now have a total of 70 alumni who have headed off to a variety of public (75%) and private (25%) high schools:

- Baxter Academy for Technology and Science
- Cape Elizabeth High School
- Casco Bay High School
- Catherine McAuley High School
- Cheverus High School
- Deering High School
- Falmouth High School
- Freeport High School
- Greely High School
- Kents Hill School
- Maine Coast Waldorf School (Freeport)
- Maine Region Ten Technical High School (Brunswick)
- The Maine School of Science & Mathematics (Limestone)
- North Yarmouth Academy
- Portland High School
- The Putney School (Vermont)
- Sidcot School (North Somerset, UK)
- South Portland High School
- Waynflete School
- Westover School (Connecticut)
- Windham High School
- Yarmouth High School

Our graduates have also attended a variety of colleges:

- Allegheny College
- Brown University
- Clark University
- College of the Atlantic
- Earlham College
- Eckerd College
- Franklin & Marshall College
- Georgetown University
- Goucher College
- Hampshire College
- Johns Hopkins University
- Knox College
- McGill University
- Muhlenberg College
- The New School
- Northeastern University
- Saint Lawrence University
- Stevens Institute of Technology
- Smith College
- Stanford University
- University of New England
- University of Rhode Island
- University of Southern Maine
- University of Vermont
- Vassar College
- Virginia Tech
- Wellesley College
- Wentworth Institute of Technology
- Yale University