

White Water Horizon (Life Is Like A River)

I thought it would flow swift and smooth
But there's a white water horizon
I once believed I knew the truth
But the current's so surprising
I thought that this was all of life
But I was in the shallows
I didn't know the meaning of strife
Now I'm rushing to the gallows.

Chorus:

I'm rushing down the mountainside
Clear to the human eye
Life is like a river with all its twists and turns along the way

Canoeing down
Blue flowing water
Bluebird chirps upon its tree
Moose are wading in the river
They've been waiting here for me

Chorus:

I'm rushing down the mountainside
Clear to the human eye
Life is like a river with all its twists and
turns along the way

Rushing rapids rolling down
I see the rocks before me
If I'm not careful I might drown
This river's awfully frothy
My boat is lurching back and forth
The waves are crashing nearer
My compass swings away from north
Will the way get clearer

Chorus:

I'm rushing down the mountainside
Clear to the human eye
Life is like a river with all its twists and
turns along the way

Now it's flowing swift and smooth
I see the blue horizon
Now I really know the truth
And the current's so inviting

Waterfalls

Chorus:

Waterfalls
Falling down
To the deep blue pool
Coming down
Rushing down
To the deep cool blue

The smell of the forest
Light through the trees
Fish jump and splash
Full throttle through the breeze
Sparkling water
From the bright summer sun
Dappled light shining
Oh this is fun!
